

Ethiopian horses and mules are very sure footed and trail wise to take you any rugged areas if you want to see beautiful mountain and landscape scenarios. Semien and Bale National parks are the two well established areas for trekking.